CHILD AND ALTERNATE CAREGIVERS INFORMATION

A crisis can happen at any time without notice and in the event that happens it is critical to have information about your child(ren) and potential caregiver information written down in a place that others will be able to locate it.

The Alberta Emergency Management Website maintains information on emergency preparedness including lists to help families become more prepared. Building Your Emergency Kit

In the event that the caregiver may require financial supports to help care for your children, they can call the following numbers to see if they meet the eligibility for assistance.

- o Alberta Supports at 1-877-644-9992
- o Canada Child Benefits at 1-800-387-1193
- o Child and Youth Support Program 310-0000

Checklist of Information to Collect for Alternate Caregivers

☐ Children's full names and date of birth

☐ Alternate caregiver's full names, date of birth, contact numbers and address (there can be several people listed)

☐ Names of all adults who live in the home, date of birth and contact information

☐ Children's medical diagnosis, medication or allergies that other's need to be aware of and where the medication is located in your home

☐ Phone numbers and addresses for family physicians, dentists, optometrists, and other important medical professionals

☐ Name and phone number of a pharmacy that is used by you and your family

☐ Daycare, school contact information

☐ What likes and dislikes should a potential caregiver know about your child?

☐ Immunization information for your children

☐ Name of employers and contact information for you and other parents/guardians

☐ Provide a location as to where your will, birth certificates, marriage and divorce certificates are along with life insurance policies, financial documents and information as to where you may have keys to a safety deposit box or home safe.

☐ Provide a spare key to a potential caregiver and person you trust

☐ Arrange care for pets

☐ Make arrangements for mail to be picked up

Alberta Health Services

Allied Health
Professional Practice
& Education

Alberta Children's Services

Created: 04 22 20
ECC Approved: 04 25 20
@1004h